On board were the usual passengers, Uncle Zeke, Hans Sauerkraut, the darky and the troublesome little girl. The call "Twenty minutes for lunch", was followed by a scramble at the lunch counter where everybody was for himself. The affair was a success from start to finish and furnished amusement and entertainment that will last a long time for the fortunate participants.

One of the most successful and most unique parties ever given here was that Monday night at which Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cowles were host and hostess. Their guests were bidden by cards asking them to come dressed for a voyage and accompany Mr. and Mrs. Cowles to Chicago. On arriving at the house they encountered a full sized engine headlight blazing away, and within the elegant rooms had been converted into ticket office, waiting rooms, parlor cars, smokers, baggage cars and lunch counter. At the ticket office a ticket was given each traveler designating one of the six stations at which this train stopped on its way to Chicago. These stations were decorated card tables and the game of railroad euchre was played.

John Walter, the pioneer furniture man, had the misfortune to become ill Sunday. While sweeping snow he was taken with an apopletic fit, falling and becoming unconscious. His condition was considered serious at first, his age being against his recovery. But he improved so that he talked and seemed likely to get well. Tuesday morning however, he was taken worse and died in a short time. He leaves a widow, daughter and several grandchildren, besides his brother Peter, with whom he has been connected in business for many years. He came here when McGregor was young and has grown old with it, and his death dissolves the oldest firm in town. He was seventy one years old and was born in Germany, coming to this country in early boyhood.

W Mcgregor for Waller Bro

Obituary of John Walter.

Died at his home Tuesday forenoon, was stricken Sunday morning with apoplexy which carried him away to yonder home.

Deceased was born February 1834 Hockenheim Baden, Germany, where he grew to manhood. He departed for America February 1847 and located in Ohio where in 1853 he was married to Miss Margarethe Koegele. They next lived a short time at Dubuque, from there in July 1856 came to McGregor, which has been his home ever since, where he and his brother Peter Walter entered in partnership, which has continued all these years under the firm of Walter Bros for many years the largest furniture dealers in Clayton county. Deceased was always of a cheerful disposition, always having a kind word for every one, which made him honored and respected by all. He leaves to mourn his loss one brother in Ohio, Peter of this city, his faithful wife and two daughters Mrs. Rev. Bush of Philadelphia and Mrs. Peter Zahn of this city, also two grand daughters who have grown to womanhood in his family, Misses Mamie and Kittie Jellenick. The family has the sympathy of the entire community in this their sad bereavement.

Services will be held at the German church of which he has been a member for many years, Rev. Gerdes officiating.

SECOND CHURCH CALL ACCEPTED

The Rev. Albert C. Busch, of Cold Spring, N. Y., has accepted the unanimous call extended to him by the members of the Second Presbyterian Church.

The coming of Mr. Busch to the pastorate of the church fills the vacancy created by the resignation of the Rev. Norris W. Harkness last spring.

This will be the third charge of the Rev. Albert C. Busch since his graduation from Princeton Theological Seminary over three years ago. He is now the pastor of the Cold Spring Presbyterian Church. It is expected that he will assume charge here before the end of November.

REV. ALBERT C. BUSCH.

BIG DAY FOR BOYS OF CITY TOMORROW

Morning, Afternoon and Evening Missionary Meetings at Second Presbyterian Church

Tomorrow will be observed as Boys' Missionary day in the Second Presbyterian Church, Mercer and Market Streets, of which the Rev. A. C. Busch is pastor. The purpose of the program, which was arranged by the boys' department of the Sunday School, is to stimulate the interest of boys in Missions. The idea is to reach not only the boys of the Sunday School, but also as many other boys of Trenton as possible. The program includes the morning and evening church services and the afternoon session of the boys' department.

The morning service, commencing at 10:30, will be devoted to the work of Foreign Missions. The Rev. J. S. Espey of Shanghai, China, will be the speaker. Mr Espey has been engaged in mission work in China up to a very late date, and during the recent political upheaval there. He will have many interesting things to tell of his experiences, and of life in China as he personally observed it. Mr. Espey was sent out by the Presbyterian Board and is now in this country on a furlough. H. S. Wilkie of San Francisco will sing at the morning meeting.

The regular Sunday School session of the boys' department, at 2:15 in the afternoon, will deal with the work for wage earning boys, carried on through the Y. M. C. A. by C. C. Robinson, formerly boys' secretary of the local Y. M. C. A., and now a member of the International Committee of North America. The purpose of this work among boys is to assist them in bettering their conditions and opportunities in life, by providing Bible classes, night schools, proper social activities and supervised athletics, and endeavoring to establish the proper relations between boys and their employers. The committee had hoped to secure Mr. Robinson himself to speak, but he is fulfilling engagements in some other part of the country. However, some expert on this branch of boys' work will deliver the address of the afternoon. Solos will be rendered by Miss Ruth Mershon of Princeton, and Mr. Wilkie.

The evening meeting, at 7:45, will be a Home Missionary meeting. William H. Schureman of Denver, Colo., will speak, using seventy-five stereopticon illustrations. Mr. Schureman is a missionary sent out by the Presbyterian Board of Sabbath School Work to western Colorado, to work among the ranchmen and cowboys, and was on the field up to the first of the year. He will have many interesting things to tell of his work and the views he will show were taken by him in Colorado, one of the most fascinating states of our country. Vocal selections will be given by Harry Hartman and Melville Chambers.

REV. MR. BUSCH TO-QUIT LOCAL CHURCH

Resigns Pastorate Here to Accept Call of Presbyterians at Bellwood, Pa.

The Rev. Albert C. Busch, for seven years pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, this city, has tendered his resignation to accept the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church at Bellwood, Pa. According to present plans, the Rev. Mr. Busch will enter upon his new pastoral duties early in April. The officials of the local church will soon take action on his resignation and at the coming session of the Presbytery of New Brunswick it is expected he will be transferred to the Presbytery of Huntington, Pa.

The Pennsylvania church of which the Rev. Mr. Busch will become pastor is about the same size as his church here. It has, however, a manse. The call to become pastor of Bellwood church was a surprise to the Rev. Mr. Busch. It appears that a member of the Huntington Presbytery some time ago visited this city for the purpose of hearing "Billy" Sunday. While here he attended a service in the Second Presbyterian Church. A few days after his return home, the invitation to accept the Bellwood pastorate was received by the local pastor.

When the Rev. Mr. Busch announced that he had been called to the Pennsylvania charge, this congregation immediately arranged to increase his salary from $1,300 to $1,850 a year. The pastor decided, however, that he would go to the new field.

Coming to this city from Cold Spring, on the Hudson, the Rev. Mr. Busch has been very successful with his work here. Hundreds of additional members have been enrolled and the boys' department, which is quite flourishing, established. Improvements have been made to the church and an individual communion service installed. The church debt of $13,000 has been reduced to $9,000.

The Rev. Mr. Busch has been prominently identified with the Mercer County Federation of Patriotic Fraternities and other organizations. He is a member of Century Council, No. 100, Jr. O. U. A. M., and is leader of the Bible class in that lodge. This body has been formed since the "Billy" Sunday revival. Meetings are held following lodge sessions. He is also chaplain of the Mott Memorial Association.

In the new field to which he will go the Rev. Mr. Busch sees many opportunities. Bellwood is a suburb of Altoona, where the great railroad shops are located.

PICNIC AND PARADE OF TWINS WILL BE HELD AT CASSVILLE

Association in Southwestern Part of State Plans Interesting Event for Next Sunday

Cassville, Wis. — (Special) — Twin honors will be conferred upon Charles J. Kuenster, president and cofounder of the Southwestern Wisconsin Twins' association, at the 12th annual twin picnic to be held at Cassville, Sunday, June 2, under the auspices of the Cassville Civic club.

Mr. Kuenster will be presented with a cheese head, a likeness of himself sculptured from a Wisconsin longhorn cheese, the presentation being made with the compliments of the Wisconsin department of agriculture. This signal method has been chosen to honor the man who helped originate the twin picnic, and who has been president of the association since the death of his twin brother, Henry G. Kuenster, in 1937.

The second honor to be conferred upon Mr. Kuenster will be a special gold pin bearing the inscription "Cofounder, 1929, Twin Picnic, Cassville, Wisconsin." Upon the back of the pin will be engraved Mr. Kuenster's name.

Mr. Kuenster, who is now living at Sheboygan Falls with his daughter, Mrs. A. E. Koeppe, was unable to attend last year's picnic because of illness, but has sent assurance that he will be present for this year's celebration.

EXPECT OVER 6,000

Seeking to eclipse even last year's record attendance of nearly 200 twins and 6,000 visitors from all sections of Wisconsin, Iowa and Illinois, the civic club is making every effort to arrange a program which will make this year's event the most successful in history, and with favorable weather conditions all previous records are expected to be shattered.

Twins will register during the forenoon, and so far as possible all registrations are to be completed by noon to enable arrangements to be made for the parade of twins at 1 o'clock. As the twins parade across the platform, they will be introduced to the audience.

During the parade they will be judged by a committee of southwestern Wisconsin editors, who will determine the awarding of prizes. Awards are being offered for the oldest twins, the youngest twins, those coming the greatest distance, those looking most alike among girls under 15, ladies over 15, boys under 15, men over 15, and mixed twins under 15 and over 15. Following the custom started last year, prize winners will receive gold pins bearing the inscription "Twin."

PROGRAM IS PLANNED

While the principal attraction at this unusual festival will be the twins themselves, an elaborate program is being arranged for the entertainment of the twins and their friends. One of the features will be the excursion boat Chief Blackhawk, a Diesel-powered, 100-passenger craft which has been chartered for excursion trips during the day. All registered twins will be entitled to one free trip on the Chief Blackhawk, regarded as one of the finest and fastest pleasure boats on the upper Mississippi.

During the afternoon a program of speed boat races will be held on the river fronting Riverside park. An exhibition trick roping will be given by Jack and Bill Buschbaum Jr., who learned the art from their father, Bill Buschbaum, one of the stars of the Greer-Hammer rodeo. In addition there will be a baseball game, concessions, amusement rides, and a full program of specialties.

Twin Day To Be Observed Sunday At Annual Picnic

Sheboygen Press
June 3, 1939

Tomorrow, Sunday, will be twin day at Cassville, Wis., and twins from babes in arms to great-granddads will gather at that Mississippi river village for the 11th annual picnic of the Southwestern Wisconsin Twins' association.

The idea of such a celebration was conceived by Henry and Charles Kuenster, twin brothers, and through their efforts the first twin picnic was held at Cassville in 1929. In recent years more than 100 twins from Wisconsin, northern Illinois and eastern Iowa and 5,000 spectators have attended the event.

Henry Kuenster was president of the association from its founding until his death in 1937. Since then Charles, who now lives in Sheboygan Falls, has been president.

Awards are given to the oldest and youngest twins present, for those coming the greatest distances and for the nearest "look alikes."

PIONEER TWIN HONORED BY LIKENESS IN CHEESE

Oshkosh Daily Northwestern
June 3, 1940

Cassville, Wis.—(AP)—A likeness of Charles Kuenster, Sheboygan Falls, sculptured from a Wisconsin longhorn cheese, was presented to him at the twelfth annual twin picnic here Sunday.

Kuenster, who with his twin, the late Henry Kuenster, founded the twin picnic, was honored by 175 twins from southern Wisconsin, Illinois and Iowa.

Oldest twins attending were the Grimsey brothers, 87, of Mount Hope and the youngest were the Kennedys, 3 months old, of Boscobel.

Ward, Jno

Died.

In this city on Sunday evening, June 20th, 1880, Mrs. Carrie, wife of Frank Jellineck. Mrs. J. died of child-bed fever after a very short illness. She leaves a husband, and three small children, the youngest but one week old. Mrs. Jellineck was a very amiable lady, and her early death has cast a gloom over her many friends who are left to mourn. This case is peculiarly a sad one. The bereaved husband and father is left with the care of three helpless children; and we trust he will have the sympathy of every parent in this community.

Peter Zahn—1863-1917

Peter Zahn died at his home, Monday evening, Dec. 10. He had been ailing for some months, but not until recently had his condition seemed serious.

Peter Zahn was born in Baden, Germany, February 27, 1863, being 54 years, 9 months and 13 days old at the time of his death. In 1885 he came to America, locating in St. Paul, Minn. Three years later he came to McGregor, where he has since resided. On February 20, 1890, he was married to Mary Walter and five children were born to them, one dying in infancy. The four remaining are: Marguarete, Mrs. Carl Miller; Meda M.; Walter J. and Carolyn, Mrs. Harry Miller. Besides these he is survived by his widow, his mother-in-law, Mrs. John Walter, Sr., three grandchildren. several neices and nephews and a host of friends.

He was a member of the M. W. A. and B. A. Y. Lodges.

The funeral was held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home, Rev. Alex Cutler of the Congregational church officiating. Mrs. D. G. Benjamin sang two of his favorite German hymns.

RITES FOR MRS. ZAHN TUESDAY

Lived Entire Life in This Community

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Walter Zahn, who died Saturday, were held from the Congregational church Tuesday, the Rev. J. J. Priestley conducting the services. Mrs. L. O. Glad, accompanied by Mrs. Thea Sloane, sang two solos, "Shall We Gather at the River," and "Nearer My God to Thee." Interment was made in a local cemetery.

Mary Walter, the youngest daughter of John and Margaretha Walter, was born in McGregor, Iowa, on Dec. 24, 1858, and passed away at McGregor, April 8, 1933, at the age of 74 years, her entire life having been spent in this community.

She attended public school and German school until her hearing became impaired and she was unable to further her education.

On February 20, 1890, she was united in marriage to Peter Zahn, and to this union five children were born: one son, who died in infancy; Mrs. Carl Miller, Mrs. Ben Schultz, and Mrs. Harry Miller, all of McGregor, and Walter Zahn, of Beloit, Wis.

In addition to rearing her own family she mothered three of her sister's children, Katherine, Mayme and Clinton Jellineck.

Mrs. Zahn was a true friend to all. She was possessed of every good quality, but above all she shone as a perfect mother and homemaker, and her life was centered in her family.

She was a member of the German Presbyterian church and of late years was associated with the work of the Congregational church.

Those left to mourn her loss besides her children and grandchildren are a sister, Mrs. Minnie Busch, of Philadelphia, Pa., several nieces and nephews and other relatives and a host of friends.

Those who came from a distance to attend the funeral are Mrs. Minnie Busch and Mrs. Charles L. Week, of Philadelphia, Pa., and Mrs. Katherine Phelps, of Rome, N. Y.

STEPS ON A NAIL; ASKS FOR BIG SUM

Mrs. Augusta Schrank ,616 Hayes avenue, sued William Spies, of Chicago, for damages in the sum of $10,181 in the common pleas court Friday.

The plaintiff claims that in November of last year, while attempting to enter her residence, she stepped on a nail, and had an attack of lockjaw as a result. The defendant, Spies, according to the petition, is the owner of the property, and, in making repairs, left boards, shingles and nails lying about the yard.

Mrs. Schrank asserts that she spent three weeks in a hospital, was sick at home two months, and still suffers from the pain in her right foot.

She further says that she has been hindered in performing work. She asks $10,000 damages on account of the injury, $150 for her medical bills, and $31 for hospital expenses.

Mr. Schrank became ill a week ago. For several days preceding his demise his condition had been critical. During this time his temperature had been between 104 and 105 degrees.

Until the Booth Fisheries Company went out of business here something over a year ago, Mr. Schrank had been the company's local representative. A few weeks ago following the filing of claims in United States court at Toledo, Mr. Schrank was appointed by the court, receiver for the United Fisheries Company of which City Commissioner Charles F. Mr. Schrank succeeded Mr. Mischler as Booth representative here upon the retirement of the latter to go into business for himself.

Mr. Schrank is survived by his widow, the former Miss Jenna Biehl, of this city; three sisters, Mrs. Alex Hoppe and Mrs. Randolph Richards, of Toledo, and Mrs. Katherine Schaedler, of Sandusky, and a number of nephews and nieces. A brother, George Schrank, died several years ago.

Masonic bodies to which Mr. Schrank belonged are: Perseverance Lodge No. 329 F. & A. M.; Sandusky City chapter No. 72, R. A. M.; Sandusky city council No. 26, R. & S. M.; Erie Commandery No. 23, Knights Templar. He was a Thirty-second degree Mason of the Toledo Consistory. In 1918 he served Sandusky City Council as Thrice Illustrious Master.

Mr. Schrank was also a member of the Sandusky lodge of Elks, the Sandusky Council of United Commercial Travelers, the Catawba Cliffs club and the First Congregational church.

Charles J. Andres' Sons will have charge of the funeral which will be held Wednesday at 2:30 p. m., from the residence, with the Rev. Joseph Stein, pastor of the First Congregational church, officiating.

Interment in the family lot in Oakland cemetery.

Mr. Schrank's age at the time of his death was 56 years, 11 months and two days.
